"But we aren't a glum lot.
We absolutely insist on enjoying life.
We try not to indulge in cynicism over the state of the nations, nor do we carry the world's trouble on our shoulders."
Alcoholics Anonymous p. 132 reprinted with permission by AAWS, Inc.

Contributing According to the Traditions:

To Support AA's essential services, the General Service Conference suggests individual groups adopt a specific contribution plan. First, take care of basic group expenses such as rent, literature, and a prudent emergency fund; the remaining funds may be divided according to whatever division suits your local needs. The pamphlet Self-Support: Where Money & Spirituality Mix (F-5) suggests the following (A) 50% Local Intergroup, 30% GSO, 10% Area Committee, 10% district; (B) 60/30/10 as recommended below; and (C) 60/25/10/5. Refer to the pamphlet for more explanation (Reprinted with AAWS permission).
